

10 August 2018

Dear Parents/Guardians

On Monday 10 December to Wednesday 12 December 2018 (Activities Week), Visual Art students will have the opportunity to travel to Bundanon (Owned by the Bundanon Trust and originally the property of Arthur Boyd in the Shoalhaven) to attend specialised tailored art workshops.

This will be an amazing opportunity and valuable time for students to expand their artistic abilities in the beautiful cultural setting of Bundanon. Year 11 Visual Arts students will benefit greatly as this will assist with their ideas and skills in readiness for their HSC Body of Work in 2019.

Please see link:- <https://bundanon.com.au/>

The proposed itinerary is as follows:

Departing: Monday 10 December: depart at 6am by Minibus from the Tourist Information Centre Tarcutta Street Wagga Wagga to Bundanon.

Returning: Wednesday 12 December: leave Bundanon at 11.30 am to arrive at approximately 5.30 pm at the Wagga Wagga Tourist Information Centre Tarcutta Street.

Accommodation: Bundanon, 533 Bundanon Road, Illaroo. Phone: (02) 44222115

What to Bring: Students must bring their own towel, flat sheet, toiletries, sunscreen, hat, water bottle, warm and wet weather clothing, closed toe shoes, and old shirt or apron. They may wish to bring a torch and camera. Please do not bring valuables.

Cost: $355.00. This includes transport, accommodation, workshop fees and most meals. Lunch, afternoon tea & dinner is provided on Monday night; breakfast, morning tea, lunch & dinner on Tuesday and breakfast, morning tea and a packed lunch on Wednesday morning.
